The Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE)
Galveston Bay Section Meeting
Organized by GBS Consulting and Young Professional Affinity Groups

July 13th, 2018 (Friday) 6:30-8:00 PM
Dinner Meeting
University of Houston Clear Lake, DELTA Building

"Securing the Blockchain – How Bitcoin and decentralized applications are secured"

PRESENTER: Azam Zariff, Founder at Investofy

Presenter: Mr. Zariff is a Data Scientist and a Block chain developer/enthusiast. He is also a founder at Investofy, an AI-based Ethical investing platform for Equities and Crypto Assets. Mr. Zariff has also consulted startups in the Blockchain space.

PLEASE NOTE:

This COMPLIMENTARY MEETING is organized by the IEEE Galveston Bay Consulting Affinity Group and Young Professional Affinity Group

1- Venue is UHCL Delta Building, Room D136. Parking allowed only on students lot. Instructions will be provided for FREE parking to those who register early
2- Workshop is complimentary but reservation is mandatory due to limited space. Complimentary Pizzas are arranged ONLY to those making reservation. [NO Exception]
3- PLEASE Reserve your seat by email to Murali Krishnan, YP Chair at ypieeegalveston@gmail.com by NOON Thursday July 12th, 2018.

Interested non-IEEE engineers, technicians, scientists, IEEE Members and guests alike are welcome!

Please reserve early

Reservations to attend this meeting should be made by email to:
ypieeegalveston@gmail.com

Please check IEEE GBS website: http://sites.ieee.org/gb/communities/ for map and more.

Any person needing an accommodation for disability in order to participate in this program should contact organization name at contact information at the time of reservations to arrange for the accommodation